

Writing Challenge

You have 350 words to play with in order to write a descriptive piece of writing set in the Tudor period of time. Your writing should be as historically accurate as possible.

Your mini story could possibly be based on:

- Anne Boleyn traveling to her beheading
- An adventure of Henry VIII whilst hunting
- Francis Drake on a voyage with the Spanish Armada

Remember to include a short setting and character description, and possibly some speech to move the action of the story along.

Good Luck
